Volunteer Terms and Conditions

Volunteer Center Waiver of Liability:

By volunteering at Connections FRC, you are assuming all risk of injury associated with your volunteer participation on the premises of Connections or FRC activities conducted off-site. You are not considered an employee of Connections Food and Resource Center and are not, therefore, covered by Connections workers' compensation insurance. By volunteering, you also release Connections and its representatives, sponsors, and supervisors from any and all claims, causes of action, and liability arising from or relating to your activities as a volunteer. You agree to comply with all posted safety instructions and follow the directions provided by Connections staff and assigned supervisors. Firearms and weapons are not permitted on Connections premises.

By entering our premise, you agree that Connections Food and Resource Center and its representatives may take photographs, videos, and other images of you, and you consent to Connection's use of the photographs, videos, and other images taken or produced. Connections Food and Resource Center may use those items in fundraising, for marketing and promotional purposes, and in electronic media for an unlimited time period, and you will not be entitled to receive any compensation, payment, royalty or other remuneration from Connections. We hope that you aren't camera shy and that you'll still join us in enriching the quality of life of people in our communities!
